Acknowledgments

In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.

1 Thessalonians 5:18

We, the Sabb family, wish to thank each and every one – the medical and nursing staff at East Georgia Regional Medical Center, the doctor's, family, church family, co-workers, friends, ministers, and chaplain for all words of comfort, for prayers, kind deeds, food, cards, and other expressions of love. We are eternally grateful. May God's love continue to flow through each and every one of you.

Obituary

Frank Edward Sabb was born in Bulloch County on June 30, 1924 to the late Nelson and Hattie Sabb. He departed this life on August 1, 2002 at East Georgia Regional Medical Center, Statesboro, GA.

At an early age, he joined Mt. Zion A.M.E. Church where he was an active member. He served on the Finance Committee, Board of Trustees, the Steward Board, and was a former member of the Sons of Allen. He served in whatever capacity he was needed until failing health limited his ability.

Frank was active in the community and served on various civic organizations and committees. He was a member of the Georgia Southern Booster Club, the William James Elks Lodge #1346, the American Legion Post #28, the Lucky 10 Club, and was a former member of the Bulloch County Chamber of Commerce.

Frank was the owner of Sabb's Plumbing and Electrical Contractor, which was one of the first black owned businesses in Portal, Georgia. It was started 40 years ago.

He leaves to cherish fond memories, a loving and devoted wife, Mrs. Christine Sabb, nine children, Mrs. Gwendolyn Lane, Mrs. Glorious (Lewis) Johnson, Ms. Sarah Walker-Parker, Mr. James (Alma) Sabb, Mr. Gary (Joanne) Sabb, Mr. Frankie Ronald Sabb, Ms. Kimberly A. Allen, all of Portal, GA, Mr. Lenward (Eloise) Sabb, Riverdale, GA and Mrs. Gwendolyn W. Stone, Atlanta, GA, one brother, Mr. James W. (Mary) Sabb of Cincinnati, OH, one sister, Mrs. Virginia Jackson, Portal, GA. Twenty-four grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

YOU'VE GOT TO HAVE FAITH

*Thursday morning the angels spread the word!
"Our brother's coming home today. Have you heard?
No more restless hours or sleepless nights.
God has told him, he's finished his fight.
Battle scars have faded away,
With a smile he's coming today."
"Who's gonna meet him and bring him to the gate?"
"He'll be brought by his father, but we've a moment to wait."
"What are we waiting on?"
"He's got a message to leave.
The word is from the Father; his family's to receive.
The word is, "Just have faith in God's work my child."
Then soon he'll depart from there with a smile."
"They'll miss him so dearly, but with that faith they'll go on.
Finding strength in each other, they've got to be strong.
Step by step, leaning firmly on faith.
Remembering and mourning, but with God they'll be safe.
Healing with time and remembering what he said.
Seeing him through God's eyes-not feeling afraid.
Faith brings us closer to God's own hand.
Love brings us together-that's the Master's plan."*
